BRYAN NAMED

Result Came After An All Night Session.

HEAT ENTHUSIASM SHOWN

Announcement of Vote Was Signal for Wild Demonstration, Equalling, if Not Surpassing, the Record-Breaking Display of Wednesday When His Name Was First Mentioned.

Denver, Colo., July 11.—William Jennings Bryan, of Nebraska, was nominated for the third time for the office of president of the United States at the democratic national convention at 10 o'clock Friday morning amid scenes of frenzied enthusiasm. The result came after an all night which was kept in a constant state of turmoil up to the culmination when the Nebraskan was named the choice of the convention and the democratic standard-bearer.

WILLIAM J. BRYAN.

On the First Ballot.

The nomination was made on the first ballot, the vote stand-

William Jennings Bryan, 892½.
Governor John A. Johnson, 46.
Senator George Gray, 59½.
Total, 1,000.

The announcement of the vote was a signal for a wild demonstration, which in turbulence, if not in duration, equaled the record-breaking display of Wednesday afternoon greeted the first mention of Mr. Bryan's name in the convention hall.

Some within the amphitheater at the moment the nomination was made were of stirring animation. The delegates, the vast building packed with ten thousand people, stood out in the remotest galleries and in the corridors and the intense atmosphere of the hot night.

Culminating Outburst.

A spectacle of grandiose proportions after tier and gallery on tier of agitated forms, the women delegates, the delegates massed below, and the delegates, a myriad of delegates, to combat the stifling atmosphere of this long and arduous multitude, ever increasing into feverish outbreaks of enthusiasm, and everywhere the delegates, the vast building packed with ten thousand people, stood out in the remotest galleries and in the corridors and the intense atmosphere of the hot night.

Defiance of Sound.

The announcement of the nomination of the Nebraskan was a signal for a wild demonstration, which in turbulence, if not in duration, equaled the record-breaking display of Wednesday afternoon greeted the first mention of Mr. Bryan's name in the convention hall. Some within the amphitheater at the moment the nomination was made were of stirring animation. The delegates, the vast building packed with ten thousand people, stood out in the remotest galleries and in the corridors and the intense atmosphere of the hot night.

out from these ten thousand throats in exultant yells, cat calls, Comanche warwhoops, with the added din of shrieking horns, the roar of megaphones and the strains of the band playing an exultant anthem.

Nomination Unanimous.

When for a moment order could be secured out of this tempestuous chaos of demonstration, state after state which had at first recorded its vote for Johnson or Gray, fell into line with the overmastering column, and the nomination was made unanimous and by acclamation.

The taking of the vote had been followed with breathless interest as state after state swelled the Bryan strength. When New York was reached in the call of states, the announcement of Chief Murphy, "seventy-eight votes for Bryan," brought out a wild outburst of enthusiastic approval, which for a time compelled the suspension of the roll call.

A Long Session.

The convention adjourned at 5:50 o'clock Friday morning until 1 p. m., after having been in session continuously for more than eight hours. As the delegates and spectators left the hall, the echoes of enthusiasm continued to reverberate throughout the building while crowds outside took up the shout and bore it along the dark and silent streets, awakening the city just as the first pale rays of dawn were breaking in the east, with the resounding cheers of "Bryan, Bryan, Bryan."

Nominating Speeches.

Prior to the culminating scene in the convention hall, when the nomination of Bryan was made, the assemblage had listened for hours to the oratory of nominating speakers.

Alabama, the first state on the roll call, yielded to Nebraska, the home state of Mr. Bryan, whose spokesman, the youthful orator, Ignatius J. Dunn, of Omaha, advanced to the platform. He spoke in good voice, with great earnestness, and to a sympathetic audience which greeted each utterance of tribute to the Nebraska leader with demonstrative evidence of approval. His concluding passage was a fervid tribute to the commoner as the intrepid leader who had borne aloft the battle-scarred flag of democracy through the campaigns of 1896 and 1900, with the devotion and faith of the crusaders of old days, "America's great commoner, Nebraska's gifted son, William J. Bryan."

Platform Presented.

It was after midnight when the nominating speeches were temporarily suspended to receive the report of the platform committee. Governor Haskell, of Oklahoma, chairman of the committee, made the report announcing at the outset that it was presented as the unanimous view of the committee, the entire membership of which ranked themselves on the platform ranking Governor Haskell, as an evidence of their united attitude. The announcement of party principles was received with close attention and with frequent demonstrations of assent. The provision concerning injunctions was punctuated by applause and at its conclusion a ringing cheer went up from delegates and spectators. The provisions concerning trusts, railway regulation, income tax and various other provisions awaited

IT IS W. J. BRYAN AND J. W. KERN

Indiana Man Unanimously Selected as Bryan's Running Mate.

ALL HIS RIVALS WITHDREW

Instead of Placing Broward in Nomination Florida Graciously Gave Way to Missouri in Order That Gov. Folk Might Second Nomination.

Denver, Colo., July 11.—When the National Democratic Convention held its session yesterday afternoon, it was very clear that the great majority of the delegates favored John W. Kern of Indiana for Vice-President. News had come from Fairview that Bryan would be pleased to have Mr. Kern as a running mate and those closest to the Commoner began work in earnest for the Hoosier statesman.

Owing to the hoarseness of Chairman Clayton, Ollie James of Kentucky took the gavel and a call of States for Vice-Presidential nomination was made.

Alabama was the first on the list and yielded to Indiana, when Thomas R. Marshall, Democratic candidate for Governor of that State, took the platform, and in an eloquent speech placed Mr. Kern in nomination. The Indiana delegates led the cheering.

Colorado named Charles A. Towne of New York, but while the applause was great, there was no scene of unusual enthusiasm. Connecticut named Archibald McNeill, and Georgia named Clark Howell. When Florida was called it gave way to Missouri in order that Governor Folk could second Mr. Kern's nomination.

Idaho seconded Towne's nomination and Acting Chairman James turned over the gavel to J. Hamilton Lewis of Chicago, and took the floor to second the nomination of Mr. Kern.

Various other States fell in the Kern column, and seeing that the nomination of the Indianan was assured, Mr. Towne withdrew and also seconded the nomination of Kern. Howell of Georgia also withdrew.

The others amid wild enthusiasm were also withdrawn, and when the motion was made to make the nomination of Kern unanimous, there was a storm of "ayes" and no opposing vote.

Resolutions of thanks were passed to the Denver people for their hospitality and to Thomas Taggart, the retiring National chairman, and at 4:23 o'clock the convention adjourned.

ed lively approbation. The platform was adopted by a rousing unanimous vote.

BRYAN HEARS NEWS.

Reiterates That He Will Not Seek a Second Term.

Fairview, Lincoln, Neb., July 11.—The following statement was made by William Jennings Bryan when he received announcement of his nomination as the candidate of the democratic party for president:

"The presidency is the highest official position in the world, and no one occupying it can afford to have his views upon public questions biased by personal ambition. Recognizing this responsibility to God and his obligation to his countrymen, he should enter upon the discharge of his duties with singleness of purpose. Believing that one can best do this when he is not planning for a second term, I announce now, as I have on former occasions, that if elected I shall not be a candidate for re-election.

"This is a nomination as purely from the people as can be, and if elected my obligation will be as purely to the people. I appreciate the honor the more because it came, not from one person or a few persons, but from the rank and file, acting freely and without compulsion."

GEORGIA LEGISLATURE.

Debate Was Continued Thursday on State Road Extension.

Atlanta, July 11.—Debate on the measure to extend the state road on Thursday to the sea was continued in the house. When a vote can be had on section one of the bill is a matter of grave doubt, many believing the debate will be continued into next week.

A number of local bills and one general bill was that to raise the age for doing road duty from 16 to 21 years of age and make the limits 21 to 50 years of age.

After a three-hour session of the house committee on appropriations that body adjourned without making a recommendation, tabling all measures until Tuesday, July 14. Bills were in hand calling for an appropriation of a half million dollars.

The joint committee from the house and senate appointed to report a bill providing for the proper disposition of the felony convicts, completed its labors by adopting without change the bill as prepared by the sub-committee, and the measure will be reported to the house, and senate. The new bill, which will take the place of the Holder bill on the house calendar and thus acquire precedence, contains some interesting provisions.

The senate committee on public roads held a short session Thursday and voted to recommend favorably the bill by Senator Boyd which provides for a macadamized road from and between every county site in the state. This is one of the most important measures which will claim the attention of the members of the general assembly at this session.

After discussing for more than two hours the bill by Senator Whaley to amend the constitution so as to provide a new way for the establishment of new counties, the senate, without having taken any action on the measure, adjourned.

QUEER FREAK OF LIGHTNING.

Alabama Man Passes Through Peculiar Experience.

Decatur, Ala., July 11.—Elmer Glover, a railroad man, who resides at Moulton Heights, a suburb of the Decatur, passed through a peculiar experience and one which he will not soon forget, as he lay quietly sleeping in a bedroom at his home.

During a thunder storm lightning struck a metal clothes line, and passing over this line ran into the house, tearing the entire corner of the house out and striking the bed in which Glover slept, made kindling wood out of the legs of the bed. The crash of the lightning aroused Mr. Glover from his quiet day's slumbers, but, strange to say he was not in the least injured, although he was badly frightened. He says that the sensation experienced by the shock of the electricity was indeed most peculiar, but a sensation that he is unable to explain.

Engine Crushes Mill Man.

Douglasville, Ga., July 11.—M. D. Geer, superintendent of Loie cotton mills and a prominent man of this place, had one leg broken and was severely crushed by a switch engine at Loie cotton mills here. The injuries are not considered serious enough to prove fatal, but it is too early at this time to tell exactly how serious they are. He was attempting to cross the track and it is thought that he did not see the switch engine approaching.

State's Side Was Upheld.

Montgomery, Ala., July 11.—Judge A. D. Bayne, of the city court, upheld the constitution of the state in the foreign corporations franchise tax suits, the result of which is to sustain the law and bring into the treasury annually something like $100,000. The fight against it was made by the Louisville and Nashville and other railroads.

Daughter of Gray Weds.

Paris, July 11.—Miss Louise Gray, daughter of the late Maurice Gray, the impresario of New York, was married at Trinity church to Maurice Garret, an engineer and professor in the School of Arts and Manufactures. A large number of musical and dramatic celebrities, including Miss Sarah Bernhardt, were present at the wedding.

THE PLATFORM

As Adopted by the Convention at Denver, Colorado.

REAFFIRMS PARTY LOYALTY

Denounces the Extravagance of the Republican Administration, Favors Revision of Tariff and Condemns Misuse of Patronage.

We, the representatives of the democracy of the United States, in national convention assembled, reaffirm our belief in and pledge our loyalty to the principles of the party.

We rejoice at the increasing signs of an awakening throughout the country. The various investigations have traced graft and political corruption to the representatives of predatory wealth and laid bare the unscrupulous methods by which they have debauched elections and preyed upon a defenseless public through the subservient officials whom they have raised to place and power.

Economy in Administration.

The republican congress in session just ended has made appropriations amounting to $1,005,000,000, exceeding the total expenditures of the past fiscal year by $90,000,000 for the fiscal year, and leaving a deficit of more than $60,000,000 for the fiscal year. We demand that a stop be put to this frightful extravagance, and insist upon the strictest economy in every department, compatible with frugal and

Misuse of Patronage.

We demand that the house of representatives shall again become a deliberative body, controlled by a majority of the people's representatives and not by the speaker, and we pledge ourselves to adopt such rules and regulations to govern the house of representatives as will enable a majority of its members to direct its deliberations and control legislation.

Misuse of Patronage.

We condemn as a violation of the spirit of our institutions the action of the present chief executive in using the patronage of his high office to secure the nomination of one of his cabinet officers. A forced succession in the presidency is scarcely less repugnant to public sentiment than is life tenure in that office.

Publicity of Campaign Contributions.

We demand federal legislation forever terminating the partnership which has existed between corporations of the country and the republican party under the expressed or implied agreement that in return for the contribution of great sums of money wherewith to purchase elections, they should be allowed to continue substantially unmolested in their efforts to encroach upon the rights of the people.

Tariff Revision.

We favor immediate revision of the tariff by the reduction of import duties. Articles entering into competition with trust-controlled products should be placed upon the free list, and material reductions should be made in the tariff upon the necessities of life, especially upon articles competing with such American manufactures as are sold abroad more cheaply than at home, and graduate reductions should be made in such other schedules as may be necessary to restore the tariff to a revenue basis.

Trusts.

A private monopoly is indefensible and intolerable. We, therefore, favor the vigorous enforcement of the criminal law against guilty trust magnates and officials, and demand the enactment of such additional legislation as may be necessary to make it impossible for a private monopoly to exist in the United States.

ch-hen-to-rm. ap off on of wovowoy

Railroad Regulations.

We assert the right of congress to exercise complete control over interstate commerce and the right of each state to exercise like control over commerce within its borders.

We demand such enlargement of the powers of the interstate commerce commission as may be necessary to compel railroads to perform their du-

FLORIDA MELON CROP WAS SHORT

Cantaloupes and Watermelons Not So Plentiful as Heretofore.

DRY WEATHER IS THE CAUSE

Crop Was Generally Short This Season Throughout Belt—Vegetables for Fall and Winter Will Be Extensively Grown This Year.

The Ocala correspondent of The New York Packer, the leading representative paper of the fruit and vegetable interests, makes the following resume of the situation in this section:

Ocala, the capital of old Marion county, located to be the capital of the State, is always one of the most interesting places to visit in the most tropical State in the Union. Ocala is thoroughly metropolitan and up-to-date and the improvements of the past year make this little city second to none of any size or location in the South. All its business streets are brick paved and its residence streets have the best of macadam and cement walks throughout. Ocala has two daily and weekly newspapers, The Banner and The Evening Star, up-to-date and progressive publications, also fine hotels and some of the best mercantile stores in the State.

Everyone knows the land in old Marion county is of the best in Florida, and as a result some of the best growers in the State live here. Many of The Packer readers are no doubt interested in this State and its products, and while Florida is generally credited with the production of tropical and semi-tropical products, yet many staples are grown here with entire success.

For example, Munroe & Chambliss are the leading bankers here, but Z. T. Chambliss & Co. are no doubt the most extensive and up-to-date farmers in Florida, owning the Palmetto Park farms here of 2,000 acres, C. B. Strickland manager, and 4,000 acres at Martin, Fla., C. B. Howell manager. These farms are a combination of fruit, vegetables and live stock. Shorthorn cattle are the leaders to the number of 100, with grade stock of 300 to 400 and many scrub or native cattle to breed up from, also hundreds of sheep and goats for purposes quite necessary on a ranch of this kind. This vast farm produces plenty of feed for all the stock and a surplus of corn and other grain for market. While "baby beef" and spring lamb are specialties from the live stock department, the cantaloupe crop this season was no doubt the largest on record in the State. Palmetto Park farms, Ocala, having 30 acres, from which were shipped 3,137 crates of fancy sizes; the Martin farms of 65 acres in cantaloupes shipped 8,156 crates, also large fancy sizes; very few ponies shipped from either place. These shipments are exclusive from other fields operated by croppers, of which there were many on this vast plantation. The Wilson Produce Co. of Pittsburg handled the bulk of this crop and satisfactory results is the pronounced verdict here. The writer had the pleasure of the season in an afternoon carriage ride with Z. C. Chambliss over this, the finest plantation of its kind in Florida, the Palmetto Park farms.

Other interested growers and business people here who read The Packer and appreciate its value include J. M. Livingston & Son, real estate dealers in farm and vegetable lands, orange grove properties and everything else in the real estate line. J. M. Livingston & Son are no doubt one of the largest and most reliable real estate companies in the Flowery State.

Martin & Carns are seed and produce dealers who supply most of the growers in this vicinity with seeds for all crops and seasons.

ACT QUICKLY

Delay Has Been Dangerous in Gainesville.

Do the right thing at the right time. Act quickly in times of danger. Backache is kidney danger. Doan's Kidney Pills act quickly. Cure all distressing, dangerous kidney ills.

Plenty of evidence to prove this. Mrs. A. H. Leonard, living at 304 E. Liberty street, Gainesville, Fla., says: "I feel that from personal experience and from the experience of several of my friends who have used Doan's Kidney Pills, I can endorse them very highly. Any person suffering from backache, headaches, chills, nervousness or any of the other symptoms arising from disordered kidneys will make no mistake in procuring Doan's Kidney Pills at J. S. Bodford & Co's. and give them a trial. They always act quickly, cause no inconvenience, and do all that is claimed for them."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

market, reads The Packer and will have beans for fall and winter shipment.

J. D. McDuffy is one of the large melon and cantaloupe growers here.

G. T. Liddon grows cants and a general crop of vegetables, and has a fine dairy farm from which Ocala gets much of its supplies in that line.

J. G. Goin grows vegetables in season. Other Packer readers are out of town, but will be reported as to crops later.

Sparr, Fla.—Sparr is one of the best vegetable sections in Florida and while this dry season has somewhat cut the crop, yet its growers are not discouraged and are universally prosperous in spite of conditions.

The growers and Packer readers here are W. Luffman of J. W. Colbert & Co., who are large growers of cantaloupes and watermelons, while W. Luffman & Bro. are general merchants, postmaster and all round business leaders in this section.

S. D. Souter makes cants a specialty but grows lettuce and other vegetables for the fall and spring market.

L. G. Young is a Packer reader who knows and appreciates its value. Mr. Young grows cantaloupes as a principal crop, with lettuce and other vegetables in season.

W. A. Nottage grows cants, tomatoes, cukes, beans and lettuce and will have lettuce for the fall and early winter market.

Many other Packer readers and growers here were not at home when the writer called, hence a small account of Sparr trade news.

Anthony, Fla.—Anthony is one of the largest cantaloupe growing and shipping stations in Florida and is noted for the fine quality produced. Not only has Anthony that reputation here, but throughout the market world, and while this season was not all that could be desired as to quantity, yet its reputation as to quality was unimpaired. Watermelons also are a staple product here, as well as vegetables of all kinds in season.

Among the growers here are the following: W. G. Smith, who grows cants, beans and other vegetables in season.

J. P. Jones makes a specialty of cantaloupes and tomatoes, but grows other stuff when the market looks favorable.

E. L. Howell, connected with Bender, Streibig & Co., Cincinnati, O., is no doubt the largest grower here, having this season shipped cantaloupes from 275 acres of that product and watermelons from 160 acres, both crops being a success, considering weather and market. Mr. Howell is an expert grower, packer, shipper and manager and his product is always of the best. R. A. Green, representing Bender, Streibig Co., is here at present, but will soon leave for more Northern points.

Other growers here who were out of town and whom The Packer man hopes to meet later are F. W. Ellison of F. W. Ellison & Bro., large cantaloupe and melon growers. F. W. Ellison is in Georgia inspecting peach orchards. Other Packer readers here who were out are C. W. Gates, J. D. Baskin, C. A. Preist, J. A. Lamb and Noah Green, all growers of cantaloupes, melons and other products.

TRAPP REMANDED TO JAIL.

Was Bound Over By Justice Henderson in the Sum of $1,000.

Chas. Trapp, the negro who shot and killed James Stratford at Jonesville on last Saturday, was Wednesday bound over by Justice Henderson of Newberry in the sum of $1,000.

It will be remembered that Trapp and Stratford were together with others engaged in shooting at each other's hats when Stratford was shot, from the effects of which he died.

After hearing the evidence in the matter, the Justice bound Trapp over, and he was brought here and placed in jail.

Friends are now endeavoring to secure the required bond to gain his release.

STATE NORMAL NOTES.

Prof. Himes—"Miss Rustica, parse cow, in the sentence, 'Mary milked the cow.'"

Miss Rustica—"Cow is a common noun, neuter gender, objective case, and stands for Mary."

Prof. Himes—"How do you make that out?"

Miss Rustica—"You must be from the city. If the cow doesn't stand for Mary, how can Mary milk her?"

It is Prof. Corr's algebra class. Miss Positive has the following equation on the board:

$$10x + y + 42 = 10x + y$$

Miss Positive is puzzled. Calling Prof. Corr, she says: "Professor, I have inverted these digits, but I can't see any sense in it—I can't do nothing with them letters turned that-a-way."

It is the physical geography class. Prof. Corr—"Miss Smith, explain the difference in the manner in which the earth and the water is warmed."

Miss Smith, longing for an opportunity to sample the box of bon-bons slipped into her hands by an ardent admirer—"The earth is warmed by absorption, the water by convection and the heart by confection."

Prof. Corr—"So I perceive."

G. B. Burhans Testifies After Four Years.

G. B. Burhans of Carlisle Center, N. Y., writes: "About four years ago I wrote you stating that I had been entirely cured of a severe kidney trouble by taking less than two bottles of Foley's Kidney Cure. It entirely stopped the brick-dust sediment, and pain and symptoms of kidney disease disappeared. I am glad to say that I have never had a return of any of those symptoms during the four years that have elapsed and I am evidently cured to stay cured, and heartily recommend Foley's Kidney Cure to anyone suffering from kidney or bladder trouble." J. W. McCollum & Co.

The Juvenile Ball Team.

From Friday's Daily Sun:

That Gainesville has the ball fever there is little doubt, as it can furnish more ball teams than any other city its size in the State. There is now a new one among the number known as the "Crap Shooters," with Billie Simpson as captain, and the "Zincks," Frank Hernandez, captain. They met on the Northeast Gainesville diamond yesterday afternoon when the "Crap Shooters" were victorious against competitors, the score being 18 to 5.

Do not risk your health by taking some unknown preparation when Foley's Honey and Tar is safe and certain in results. The genuine is in a yellow package. J. W. McCollum & Co.

Kirby Smith Had Good Meeting.

There was an interesting meeting of Kirby Smith Chapter, U. D. C., held at the home of Mrs. J. B. Brooks Thursday afternoon, which was largely attended. At this meeting three new members, Mrs. Walker and daughter, Miss Louise, and Mrs. Chas. Birt, were elected, and the names of Mrs. Bostick and Miss Tirzah Witherspoon were presented to the Chapter for election.

Will Enable Them to Accommodate Growing Gainesville.

IMPROVEMENTS TO BE MADE

Trustees Will See That Scholars
Will Not Be Cramped the Coming Term As They Have Been in the Past Few Years.

Friday's Daily Sun:
Another important sale has been announced in this city, when the School Board yesterday sold the trustees of the Gainesville High School the Seminary building.

It is the intention of the trustees to use this old historic building up in conjunction with the new high school building at the new term of school.

The enrollment of the school has increased, and for the past years they were compelled to use houses in order to accommodate the scholars that applied for admission, and even then there were many that were compelled to remain at home.

Under the new plan they will now be enabled to accommodate over a hundred scholars and the present as anticipated, will accommodate Gainesville's rapid growth for the time.

the country. It proved more successful than any other remedy or treatment, and the thirty-five years maintained its record. From a small beginning its use has extended to every part of the United States and to many other countries. Nine druggists will recommend it when asked, although they are not paid for it. It can always be relied upon, even in the most serious cases. For sale

A Valuable Stallion.

Friday's Daily Sun:
The visitors to Gainesville were J. B. Kennard of Waldo.
Kennard is the owner of a valuable and handsome stallion,
"Oro," which he purchased a year ago from the Carnegie Farm at Douglass, on Cumberland road, and which was brought here for the purpose of having it properly bred. This stallion is one of the most valuable in this section of the country, and is owned by "Oro Wilkes," 2:11 1/4. He is an animal of most handsome appearance, and is greatly admired by all who have seen it.
"Oro Wilkes" is now at the stables of J. W. McCollier & Davis, but will be shown at Waldo this afternoon.

During the summer kidney irregularities are often caused by excessive use of the kidneys. Affected kidneys at once by using Kidney Cure. J. W. McCol-lier.

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Never Suspect it.

Prevalency of Kidney Disease.

Most people do not realize the alarming increase and remarkable prevalence of kidney disease. While kidney disorders are the most common diseases that prevail, they are almost the last recognized by patient and physicians, who continue to treat them with doctoring the effects, while the original disease undermines the system.

What To Do.
There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage.
It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes.

You may have a sample bottle and a book that tells all about it, both sent free by mail. Address Dr.
Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention this paper and don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y.

THE BUDINGERS AT HOME.

Reached Snow Shoe, Pa., After a Delightful Sea Voyage.

T. B. Budinger and interesting little son, Robert, who spent the past few months here, and who sailed on the Clyde Line steamer "Apache" in early June, have reached their home in Snow Shoe, Pa., after a delightful sea trip to New York.

Mr. Budinger writes friends in this city to the effect that he took his automobile North on the steamer, but while the machine was being repaired he received information that his father was quite ill, and proceeded to Snow Shoe.

"We had a very pleasant trip on the steamer," he said, "as we had quite a little party from Gainesville aboard, consisting of Mr. and Mrs. S. M.
Davis and children, Mrs. Medlin, son and daughter, Mrs. Ella LaF. Hamilton, Mrs. Mason, Miss Ball, Mrs. Col-clough, Robert and myself."

Friends will be glad to welcome
Mr. Budinger and his family again next winter. He is extensively interested in the milling business near the city, being associated with the Bock Lumber Company, and has recently purchased a nice home here—the Walter G. Robinson place on South
Pleasant street.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy Would Have

Saved Him $100.

"In 1902 I had a very severe attack of diarrhoea," says R. N. Farrar of Cat Island, La. For several weeks I was unable to do anything. On March 18, 1907, I had a similar attack, and took Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, which gave me prompt relief. I consider it one of the best medicines of its kind in the world, and had I used it in 1902 believe it would have saved me a hundred dollar doctor's bill." Sold by all druggists.

Had Nice Trip.

From Friday's Daily Sun:

N. Wells, W. R. Carter, Kite Francisco and P. M. Oliver returned yesterday from Kanapaha Sink, where they have been for the past three days. They report the "biggest" time of their lives, as they not only feasted on all the fish they wanted, but had an abundance of squirrel and doves.

FIRE PROTECTION FOR WEST LIBERTY STREET

City Council Order Pipe and Hydrants
Thursday Night.

FOUR AND SIX-INCH ORDERED

They Propose to Give the People of The Fast-Growing Sections Every Convenience for Which They Are Paying, Which Will Be Appreciated.

The City Council at an adjourned meeting on Thursday night made provision for some of the districts in the city that have as yet no fire protection.

An order was placed for forty tons of six-inch pipe, thirty tons of four-inch pipe and ten hydrants.

A portion of this material will be used on West Liberty street, giving the people of that section known as College Park, and all along West Liberty street, the advantage of the fire protection that they have so long needed.

In addition to the above the people of North Prairie avenue will also be favored with hydrants placed on important corners of that thoroughfare.

The council is to be commended for their liberality in ordering this new material, as in giving these people protection they are doing what has not only been needed but what will greatly enhance the value of their property.

Help for Those Who Have Stomach Trouble.

After doctoring for about twelve years for a bad stomach trouble, and spending nearly five hundred dollars for medicine and doctors' fees, I purchased my wife one box of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, which did her so much good that she continued to use them and they have done her more good than all of the medicine I bought before.—Samuel Boyer, Folsom, Iowa. This medicine is for sale by all druggists. Samples free.

Substantial Awning.

The Graham building, on E. Main street N., is greatly improved by a substantial and neat iron awning being erected along the front of the building. This will not only prove a convenience for the occupants of the building, but will afford the pedestrians a great convenience who pass this thoroughfare.

Was in Poor Health for Years.

Ira W. Kelley of Mansfield, Pa., writes: "I was in poor health for two years, suffering from kidney and bladder trouble, and spent considerable money consulting physicians without obtaining any marked benefit, but was cured by Foley's Kidney Cure, and I desire to add my testimony that it may be the cause of restoring the health of others." Refuse imitations. J. W. McCollum & Co.

Elks Had Fine Meeting.

There was a large and enthusiastic meeting of the Elks Thursday night, when J. T. Henry of Newberry was trotted over the "hot sands of the desert." In the absence of Exalted Ruler Davis, Past Exalted Ruler Chubb presided, and the members present witnessed an interesting meeting.

S.S.S. A CURE FOR RHEUMATISM

Rheumatism is caused by an excess of uric acid in the blood, which is carried through the circulation to all portions of the system. Every muscle, nerve, bone and joint absorbs the acid, pain-producing poison, causing aches, inflammation, stiffness and other well known symptoms of the disease.
Permanent relief from the pains and discomfort of Rheumatism cannot be expected from the use of liniments, plasters, and other external treatment which does not reach the blood, where the cause is located. Such measures give temporary relief, but in order to cure Rheumatism the uric acid and inflammatory poison must be expelled from the blood. S. S. S. cures Rheumatism because it is a perfect blood purifier. It goes down into the circulation, neutralizes the uric acid and drives it from the blood. S. S. S.
expels the irritating, inflammatory matter which is causing the pain, swelling and other discomfort, enriches the weak, sour blood, and permanently cures Rheumatism. In all forms of Rheumatism, whether acute or chronic, S. S. S. will be found a safe, vegetable remedy, possessing the properties needed to cure, and at the same time a medicine that builds up the entire system by its fine tonic effects. Book on Rheumatism and any medical advice free to all who write.

Fifteen hundred people was the estimated number of visitors at Worthing-

My little boy, four years old, had a severe attack of dysentery. We had two physicians; both of them gave him up. We then gave him Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea that saved his life.—William H. Strol-doubt but this remedy saves the lives of many children each year. Give it with castor oil according to the plain printed directions and a cure

Hetty Green says her daughter is not yet ready to marry the best man living. She won't be, either, unless she moves away from New York.

The trusts' idea of what must be the "reasonable profit" promised them in the tariff plank of the Republican platform can be easier imagined than paid by the people.

R. J. Holly has severed his connection with The Orlando Reporter-Star. He greatly improved the paper and The Sun regrets to hear that he is no longer connected with the same.

It is said that the typewritten copy of Senator LaFollette's speech tipped the scales at nineteen pounds. It evidently was a heavy argument, but paradoxically, it did not carry much weight.

It is reported that provision will be made at Tallahassee for the payment of the $15,000 appropriation for State Fair premiums, thus far held up because of lack of funds in the State treasury. This is a matter of interest to all those who won premiums at the last fair.

The Tampa Evening News says: "There's a woman candidate out in Florida. The Socialist State Convention nominated Mrs. S. F. J. Finn of Euclid for State Superintendent of Public Instruction. Mrs. Finn is doubtless an estimable and capable woman, but she is in bad company, and her political Finn-ish will not be a successful one."

One hundred and twenty-seven deaths in New York in one day from prostration caused by the excessive heat. Come to Florida and spend your summers. You have long ago learned that Florida was the place to spend your winters. Try a summer with us also, then make this State your home and join us in making this the best State in the United States.

A dispatch to The Times-Union from New York says Hon. Thomas A. Darby, formerly State Senator from Putnam county, died in Alaska last Monday of apoplexy. Senator Darby was a member of the Legislature of 1897, which elected Stephen R. Mallory as United States Senator. Mr. Darby was for years a prominent business man in Alachua county, and the people of this section will regret to learn of his death. He was recently married to Miss Caroline Brevard of Tallahassee, who was his second wife.

While we voted for Broward, we feel for D. U. Fletcher real friendship, and we do not hesitate to say that Florida, in him, will have the ablest Senator that she has ever sent to Washington. We had the honor to serve with him in the Legislature of 1893, and in that session, every act, every vote, and every utterance stampeded him as a high-minded, honorable and intellectual man, and we are sure that time has ripened his mind and broadened his experience. We wish him every success and hope that he may be retained at Washington for several terms and we believe his record will be such as will keep him there.—Dartow Record.

THE TRIBUTE TO BRYAN.

Few people who have never attended a National convention of at least one of the great political parties of these United States can comprehend the magnitude of the tribute paid to hon. W. J. Bryan during the convention at which he was nominated in Denver last week. The Denver convention was not as largely attended by the public as the one held in Kansas City eight years ago, and the number of delegates and alternates only exceeded that assembly by a hundred or so. But the tribute paid the great Commoner last week seems to have equalled that paid him on the Fourth of July, 1900, if such a thing were possible. The editor of The Sun was a delegate to the Kansas City convention, and he can picture in his mind's eye the scene that occurred in Denver last week. When the Bryan banner was waved in the convention in Kansas City ten thousand flags were immediately held aloft by delegates and spectators, the standards of the different States were seized by excited advocates of the great Nebraskan, and a march around the immense auditorium with these banners waving began which lasted for over an hour. To give an idea of the enthusiasm which prevailed we have only to state that such men as former Chief Justice Liddon, Judge Palmer of Lake City, and others of the older members of the delegation took turn about as banner bearers, as one or the other would become exhausted from the excessive heat. The "younger" element, however, such as Major Wright of Tampa, Judge Gibbons of Jacksonville, McDonald of DeLand, and one or two others, maintained their composure and did not become unduly excited, although they were heartily in favor of Bryan's nomination under the circumstances. What they feared most was the 16 to 1 craze, and time has demonstrated that they were right on this question.

When an effort was made in the Kansas City convention to get David B. Hill to accept second place on the ticket with Mr. Bryan the demonstration was as great, if not greater, than that accorded to Bryan, but this was probably due to the fact that Mr. Hill was a participant in the proceedings of the convention. When he was compelled to mount the speaker's stand in response to the demand of the delegates and audience he could absolutely have walked on the heads from his place in the New York delegation to the rostrum, and as it was he was virtually passed from the arms of one man to another until he was landed on the rostrum.

The writer has never seen the like of the scene as these two demonstrations in the Kansas City convention, and it is not likely that the demonstration in the Denver convention surpassed either one of them. The tribute paid Col. Bryan, however, at the Denver convention shows that he still holds first place in the hearts of Democrats, and let us all hope that the returns in November will show that he now holds first place in the hearts of a majority of his countrymen. His views on National matters have certainly grown in popularity during the past eight years, and as the exponent of these ideas he ought to be delegated by the people to put them into effect.

TAFT'S MANAGING MAN.

There hasn't been much doubt at any time, says The Savannah News, that Frank H. Hitchcock would be selected to manage Mr. Taft's campaign. He managed the Washington end of his campaign for the nomination. He had headquarters in Washington and rounded up the office-holders in the South and got them to send Taft delegates to Chicago.

It isn't known to the world at large that he has qualifications for managing a great political campaign. Secretary Cortelyou thinks he has. Mr. Cortelyou discovered him, and has faith in him. Mr. Cortelyou himself hadn't a great deal of experience as a political manager when he was chosen to manage Mr. Roosevelt's campaign.

Mr. Hitchcock is about forty-two years of age and is said to be able to make friends rapidly. He is a graduate of Harvard University and has been an office-holder ever since his graduation. He didn't study for a profession when he left the university, but went to Washington, where he was made the chief of a bureau. Evidently he had influence with the powers there. Otherwise he wouldn't have captured so fine a prize so early in his political career. The place required that he should travel over the country. In that way he became acquainted with leading politicians and office-holders. Then Mr. Cortelyou had him appointed to the place of First Assistant Postmaster-General. They became great friends and Mr. Cortelyou missed no opportunity to sing his praises.

It seems that Mr. Hitchcock had some experience in practical politics when he was at Harvard. The young men were leaving the Republican party in Massachusetts because it was too conservative. It didn't attract them, and they were deserting to the Democratic party. The Republican leaders determined to make a fight to retain them, and Mr. Hitchcock was one of the men chosen to work among them and to inspire them with new faith in the Republican party. He seems to have prospered in his work. Probably it was at that time that he got the experience which Mr. Taft thinks fits him for manager of a Presidential campaign. It is true in those early days he had to collect campaign funds and distribute them. That is a big part of the work he will have to do in looking out for Mr. Taft's interests in the Presidential contest. If, however, Mr. Bryan selects a shrewd old politician, one who has fought political battles in a score of campaigns, Mr. Hitchcock will have many sleepless nights before the ballots are counted next November.

REASONABLE PROFIT.

What is "a reasonable profit" for the industrial trusts to charge over and above the difference between the cost of production at home and abroad? The Republican managers who are hand and glove with the protected trusts and combines evidently know, but are afraid to inform the voters, for the Republican platform declares that:

"In all tariff legislation the true principle of protection is best maintained by the imposition of such duties as will equal the difference between the cost of production at home and abroad, together with a reasonable profit to American industry."

As the present tariff undoubtedly upholds "the true principle of protection," for it more than "equals the difference between the cost of production at home and abroad" and has allowed our trusts and protected interests to charge much higher prices here than similar goods are produced and sold for in foreign countries, one would think even the friends of protectionism would be satisfied. But it appears from what the Republican platform declares that on top of this enormous difference in prices here and abroad there is to be a further increase in tariff rates, if the Republicans are successful, by increasing the present tariff duties, so that on top of the profits already enjoyed, there shall be added enough more to insure a "reasonable profit." It is the evident intention of our Republican tariff thinkers to allow the trusts and protected interests to say what the increase shall be, and as we all know they are not bashful in their ideas of what is "reasonable."

Under this Republican plan of tariff revision "immediately after election," and no doubt it cannot be too immediate for the trusts and protected interests, the present plight of the American people will be comfort, pleasure and affluence compared to what the future will bring, if the voters allow the Republican revisionists and their trust friends full sway.

IS THIS REFORM?

There must be a wave of Puritanism overrunning the Pelican State, for the Journal of the Louisiana House of Representatives records:

"An act requiring old maids and bachelors to either marry or adopt enough children to direct their attention along useful and proper lines."

"An act to make it a misdemeanor for any man to kiss his own wife or any other man's wife on Sunday, and providing a penalty therefor."

Are the people of Louisiana reforming or degenerating to the condition of those of Salem where they burnt old women as witches? Anyway, it hardly seems Democratic, which should allow the most absolute freedom of the individual that is possible without interfering with the rights of others.

West Palm Beach and Florida are soon to have a female college that will be a valuable addition to the educational facilities of that county, and a credit and ornament that all should well be proud of.

ties as common carriers and prevent discrimination and extortion.

Labor and Immigration.

Experience has proven the necessity of a modification of the present law relating to immigrants, and we reiterate the pledge of our national platforms of 1896 and 1904 in favor of the measure which passed the United States Senate in 1896, but which a republican congress has ever since refused to enact, relating to contempt in federal courts and providing for trial by jury in cases of indirect contempt.

We favor the eight hour day on all government work.

We pledge the democratic party to the enactment of a law by congress, as far as the federal jurisdiction extends, for a general employers' liability act, covering injury to body or loss of life of employees.

We pledge the democratic party to the enactment of a law creating a department of labor represented separately in the president's cabinet, which department shall include the subject of mines and mining.

Civil Service.

The laws pertaining to the civil service should be honestly and rigidly enforced, to the end that merit and ability shall be the standard of appointment and promotion, rather than services rendered to a political party.

Stands for Democracy.

The democratic party stands for democracy, the republican party has drawn to itself all that is aristocratic and plutocratic. The democratic party is the champion of civil rights and opportunities to all; the republican party is the party of privilege and private monopoly. The democratic party listens to the voice of the whole people and gauges progress by the prosperity and advancement of the average man; the republican party is subservient to the comparatively few, who are beneficiaries of governmental favorites. We invite the co-operation of all, regardless of previous political affiliation or past differences, who desire to preserve a government of the people, by the people and for the people, and who favor such an administration of the government as will insure, as far as human wisdom can, that each citizen shall draw from society a reward commensurate with his contribution to the welfare of society.

A MUZZLED DOG.

The other morning a big, shaggy-haired dog came mournfully trotting down Main street with a muzzle on his nose and an unmistakable look of mortification and chagrin upon his intelligent countenance; and when opposite Davenport block he encountered a frisky little Spitz dog whose exuberant spirits were as yet unsubdued, and whose face was still unadorned by a wire muzzle. The big fellow stopped for a moment, and the little fellow gazed with perfect astonishment upon the facial decoration of his large acquaintance. Then with a few disapproving barks he began a cautious investigation of this "dog-gone" instrument of torture, and after apparently satisfying himself that it was an unwarrantable interference with the sacred rights and privileges of any well-behaved canine, he took measures for the instant removal of his objectionable appendage. Standing upon his hind legs he put his fore paws between the wires of the muzzle and tugged away with all his might. But alas, to no purpose; and after several ineffectual attempts he relinquished the task and slunk out of sight, with the mingled feelings of pity and disgust depicted on his face, with his pleasure for the morning spoiled; while the poor old fellow with the muzzle moved slowly on his way, gulping down a big sob and checking a rising tear as he thought of the base injustice of man.—North Adams Transcript.

North Gainesville Picnic.

The young people of that thriving suburb, North Gainesville, on Saturday hid themselves to the shores of old Lake Newnan, where they spent the day pleasantly with a basket picnic. Not even the rain, which fell in torrents, was sufficient to dampen enthusiasm for the day's sport spent in this way. The young people were chaperoned by Mrs. Henry Bruce.

BELL-KING.

Marriage of Popular Young Couple Waldo Thursday.

The Waldo News of July 10th gives the following account of the marriage of two popular young people known in this city:

"Miss Clara King and Mr. Charles Bell were quietly married at 8 o'clock last night at the residence of bride's brother, A. L. King, in this city."

"Only a few friends witnessed the ceremony, Rev. T. L. Z. Barr, pastor of the Methodist church, officiating. Both bride and groom have been mostly raised in Waldo and it is needless to add all their friends and acquaintances wish them a long, happy wedded life."

Miss King was the daughter of Fletcher King, at one time a member of the Legislature from this county and for four years postmaster of Gainesville. She was very popular among the young people of this city and all wish her a happy married life."

Pleasant Occasion.

A most delightful occasion was party tendered Little Miss W. Mae Lang, at the home of her mother, Mrs. W. W. Avera, East Liberty street, Friday afternoon from 4:30 to 6:30 o'clock.

Quite a number of little folks present to become acquainted with the clever little Miss, and she passed all too soon for the throng assembled.

During the afternoon delicious cream and cake was served, and little boy and girl returned to home declaring they had had "best time ever."

Work Progressing Well.

Contractor Carl of Archer, who is repainting the interior of the court house, is progressing nicely and rushing his work to completion. He has so far completed the offices of Sheriff Fennell, Judge Mason, Superintendent Kelley and Treasurer Peeler. The latter office, however, will in future be occupied by Tax Assessor Colson, it being much better adapted for his work by being more roomy. The work of Mr. Carl shows up to nice advantage, and it makes the old building look new.

Fixtures Now Arriving.

The large glass and other fixtures for the Avera store are now arriving and being placed in position. When completed this place will compare with any stand of its kind in the State. Being large and roomy, with elegant fixtures, it will be tempting enough to quench the thirst without the aid of buying the cool and sparkling soda that Mr. Avera has a reputation for making.

The largest shipment of honey ever to leave Florida was shipped to New York Saturday. The shipment was from Apalachicola and consisted of 79,000 pounds of strained honey. Some idea of the one shipment can be obtained when it is stated that it consisted of nearly forty tons, which would amount to about sixty tons in the comb.

Another industry that may assume great proportions in Punta Gorda in the near future is the raising of chickens. During last winter many chickens were shipped from here to the hotels on the East Coast, to say nothing of large quantities of eggs that were also shipped away. Only recently some fine fryers were sent to consumers elsewhere in the State. The new crop of chickens promises to be a large one, and people will not lack for this article of diet during the coming months.—Punta Gorda Herald.

The city of Pensacola is now operating the water works plant, which it acquired possession of on July 1, and although the city's ownership of this public utility has extended only a few days, indications point to a satisfactory and profitable service. The water and gas committee has adopted new rules governing the plant, which promise to obtain better results than the system under which the Pensacola Water Company operated.—Pensacola Journal.

Several months ago, when the water over the "saw grass" (a marsh formed by the back water from the electric light dam on the Hillsboro river), was quite deep, Roy Bean was wading around over the marsh shooting ducks. He had about $40 in his pocket, mostly paper money, and as he did not care to get it wet put the pocketbook in his hat. His hat was blown off by the wind and before he could rescue his pocketbook his money sunk out of sight. He was about waist deep in mud and water. Owing to the recent drought the "saw grass" is about dry. A few days ago the pocketbook was found, the money being very little the worse for its long submergence.—Saffner correspondent to Tampa Tribune.

THE BLUSHING TREE.

A Sensitive-Plant Freak Unknown to the World at Large.

That certain of our Florida shrubs are so sensitive to the approach of man that their leaves actually recoil from his touch is a fact so well known that the wonder of it has ceased to awaken surprise or comment; but the discovery of a still more astounding characteristic of Florida tree-life is still so recent that it is almost totally unknown to the world at large, and partakes so much of the incredible, that human race can scarcely entertain or grasp its truth.

It is significant, too, that you will search in vain through the standard works of the world's great naturalists for any reference to the habit of the Acalapha Blusherina, or the blushing tree as it is familiarly known to the residents of Punta Gorda, says The Punta Gorda Herald.

The leaf of this tree or shrub is large, heart-shaped, and of a vivid green.

By the merest chance it was discovered that the coloring matter of the leaves of this shrub is sensitive not only to human touch but to human thought.

A little reflection will show the tremendous importance of this discovery which is nothing more or less than the bridging of the claim between plant-life and animal-life.

It may be said that to Punta Gorda has fallen the honor of discovering this missing link.

Some years ago a party of hunters, among whom were Captain F. M. Cooper and Clayton Porter, were camping at sundown beside a cypress swamp. Small game had been plentiful and it had been a good day, judging by the game bags.

After an appetizing camp supper, pipes were lighted and stories as a natural sequence were in order, and on this particular occasion Captain Cooper especially distinguished himself as a raconteur. Hunters' stories seldom partake of a grave or historical character, but the Captain stoutly denies that the discovery of the blushing tree was co-incidental with the moment when he was handing out a hot one.

However, the fact remains that he stopped short, pulled up suddenly in the middle of his story and swept a scrutinizing glance around on the faces of his companions, exclaiming, "By Jove, what's the matter with you fellows? I wouldn't expect a mild little yarn like that to draw the blood to your faces." One of the party retorted, "What's the matter with you? When a man has to blush at one of his own stories, it's about time to hand him the halo."

Just then another member of the party drew attention to the tree under which they reclined. It, too, was stained a rich, red color in sharp contrast to the deep green of its normal appearance and the radiation of its rosy tint was reflected on the face of the men reclining beneath it.

"Well, by thunder!" roared the Captain, "watch her changing color, will you? She's pale pink, now yellow, and now green again. Talk about your chameleons, she makes the choicest of them look faded," rounding off these comments with a series of assorted and crackling profanities. The tree, shocked no doubt at the language, shivered a little and then gradually became transformed into a tender red thing, the very personification of modesty.

"Boys," said Captain Cooper, "we've got to settle this thing to our satisfaction. If it's really a blushing tree, every man of you needs one or more in the front yard. Clay, suppose you try one of your peachiest yarns on the tree till we find out if she's sensitive to other than my braud."

Thereupon the tree was subject to a most trying and convincing test by each member of the party, lasting for over two hours, during which time, it is said, the sensitive plant-freak never lost its deep carmine tint. Of course these noble hunters assert that they quite outshone themselves on that memorable occasion, but it was all in the interest of science, but be that as it may, the discovery of this rare and remarkable tree has added another to the already great number of wonders that have brought fame to Punta Gorda.

The Blushing Tree's charming foliage adds much to the beauty of our public promenades, but it has been observed that young lovers do not linger under its enticing shade.

HOUSE PARTY NOTES.

Fun Prevails at the Halle Homestead—A Jolly Crowd.

The "Night Hawks" has been selected as an appropriate name for the jolly crowd.

Tuesday night was spent in renewing old acquaintances and dancing.

Wednesday night the "Homestead" was the scene of a most brilliant mock wedding, the contracting parties being Mr. Essie Bessent and Miss Earle Bouls, both of Jacksonville. The bridal party entered the drawing-room to the strains of "No Wedding Bells for Me." The groomsmen were Messrs. Whetstone and Futch, while Misses Bartleson and Haughton preceded the maid of honor, Miss Bill Anderson, as bridesmaids. The ring bearer was little Master Annie Cannon. The ceremony was performed by the "Rev." Arthur Albertson, during which Miss Alma Fennell played "Cause I'm Married Now" very softly. The flower girl, little Master Girardeau, scattered cotton blossoms in the pathway of the bride.

The groom was attended by Mr. Ernestine Fagan as best man.

The bride was beautifully attired in a most becoming Parisian creation of white cheese cloth over green tulle, and carried a shower bouquet of sunflowers and maiden-hair ferns.

After this most impressive ceremony a wedding luncheon of watermelons and coca-cola was served. The happy couple left for Arredondo for an outing.

Only the immediate family, consisting of Mr. and Mrs. Walker and their twenty-eight children were present.

The young ladies, attired in most becoming Japanese costumes, were "at home" to their friends Thursday night.

Thursday night the jolly crowd indulged in a barn dance. This seems to be the favorite pastime of the inhabitants of the "Night Hawks' Inn."

Friday night the "Night Hawks" entertained a number of Gainesville friends with a watermelon cutting.

Our most important room is the kitchen, and is presided over by Mrs. Millie Dooly and Ella Washington.

Saturday night we will hold an important "call term" of Kanapaha court, when Miss Bell Sadler will sue Mr. Charlie Bartleson for breach of promise. Messrs. Haughton and Albertson will defend the plaintiff, while Misses Bessent and Fagan will plead for the defendant. The judge's chair will be occupied by Col. Pearl Whetstone.

We have been visited by Messrs. Klein Graham, Glenn Stringfellow, J. W. Shands and Will Anderson, and Mr. Bennett, and Misses Mamie Wilcox and Ethel Jolly of Waldo.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. McCreary, Mrs. Geo. S. Merchant and little son, Harry, spent the day with us Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Evans Haile will join the party tonight.

Lost, strayed or stolen—a pet rat. Return to Rosabel and receive reward.

Found—One set of false teeth. Owner may have same by calling at office. OFFICIAL REPORTER.

TO THE PUBLIC

The Diamond Ice Company want to talk to you about ICE:

First—The consumers are interested, because they want pure, whole some ICE for home use.

Second—Retail ICE dealers are interested, because they want full weight, solid, hard, slow-melting ICE they can cut up and sell in small pieces at a good profit.

Third—Fishermen are interested because they want ICE frozen down around zero—so cold that it almost freezes the fish and keeps them in good condition a long time.

To all you people we want to say that we are going to give you the best service, and having the best water in Florida, the very best ICE this year you ever had. ## BEAUTIFUL STORY OF DOMESTIC LOVE

Mark Twain began his brilliant literary career as a reporter on one of the Western newspapers.

His first stories were not always humorous; some were full of tender pathos and beauty.

The following story of "Domestic Love" was one of his first efforts, and not only sweet and exquisitely tender, but points an admirable moral.

It paints the loving, trusting wife in adorable colors, giving to her the attributes possessed by the angels.

The story reads as follows:

After having been married some weeks, it came into the head of a young husband in this city one Sunday, when he had but little to occupy his mind, to suggest to his wife that she should plainly and honestly state her faults that each had discovered in the other since they had been man and wife. After some hesitation the wife agreed to the proposition, but stipulated that the rehearsal should be made in all sincerity and with an earnest view to the bettering of each other, as otherwise it would be of no use to speak of the faults to which marriage had opened their eyes. The husband was of the same mind, and the wife asked him to begin with her faults. He was somewhat reluctant, but his wife insisted that he was the best to propose the matter, and if he was at the head of the house it was his place to take the lead. Thus urged, he began the recital. He said:

"My dear, one of the first faults I observed after we began keeping house was that you a good deal neglected the tinware. You didn't keep it as bright as it should be. My mother always took great pride in her tinware, and kept it as bright as a dollar."

"I am glad that you mentioned it," said the wife, blushing a little, "hereafter you shall see no speck of cup or pan. Pray proceed."

"I have also observed," said the husband, "that you use your dish-rags a long time before washing them, and then finally throw them away. Now, when at home, I remember that my mother always used to wash out her dish-rags when she was done using them, and then hang them up where they could dry, ready for the next time she would need them."

Washing as before the young wife promised to amend this fault.

The husband continued with a formidable list of similar faults, many more than we have space to enumerate, when he declared that he could think of nothing more that was worthy of mention.

"Now, my dear," said he, "you begin and tell me all the faults you have observed in me since we have been married."

The young housewife sat in silence; her face flushed to the temples, and a great lump came in her throat, which she seemed to be striving hard to swallow.

"Proceed, my dear; tell me all the faults you have observed in me, sparingly, please."

After suddenly from her seat the wife burst into tears, and throwing both arms about her husband's neck, cried:

"My dear husband, you have not a fault in the world. If you have even one, my eyes have been so blinded by love for you that so long as we have been married I have never once observed it. In my eyes you are perfect, and all that you do seems to me to be done in the best manner and the way that should be done."

"Now, my dear," said her husband, "now reddening and his voice growing husky with emotion, "just think, my dear, and found all manner of faults in you. Now, do tell me some of your faults. I know I have many—more than as many as you ever had before. Let me hear them."

"My dear husband, it is as I tell you; I have not a single fault that I can find in you. Whatever you do seems right in my eyes; and now that I know you, I shall at once begin the work of reform, and try to make myself worthy of you."

"Now, my dear; you know that whenever I go away and leave you alone, I stay up town, and I don't want to be at home; I spend my money for drinks and cigars when I ought to bring it home to you;—"

"You don't," cried his wife, "You are the kind. I like to see you enjoy yourself; I should be unhappy for you to do otherwise than just exactly as you do!"

"God bless you, little wife," cried the now thoroughly subjugated husband; "from this moment you have not a fault in the world! Indeed, you never had a fault in the world; I was but joking—don't remember a word I said!" and he kissed away the tears that still trembled in the little woman's eyes.

Never again did the husband scrutinize the tinware nor examine the dish-rag—never so much as mention one of the faults he had enumerated; but soon after the neighbor women were wont to say:

"It is wonderful how neat Mrs. — keeps everything about her house. Her tinware is always as bright as a new dollar, and I do believe she not only washes, but irons, her dish-rags!" And the neighbor men were heard to say: "What a steady fellow Mr. — has got to be of late; he doesn't spend a dime where he used to spend dollars, and can never be kept from home half an hour when he is not at work. He seems to worship that wife of his."

NEWS NOTES FROM WASHINGTON

Washington, D. C., July 9.—Notwithstanding the departure of the President to his summer home and the scattering of the cabinet and the supreme court, movements emanating from or centering in Washington are of more than usual interest this summer. The Secretary of War, or he who was until recently the Secretary of War and is now the Republican Presidential candidate, is in the city winding up matters for his final departure. He is now, for the first time for years, a private citizen and the most conspicuous private citizen in the Western hemisphere. He expects to leave for the Hot Springs of Virginia, with Mrs. Taft and their youngest son, Charles Taft, a youth of ten years. Mr. Taft has been in the habit of spending his summers in Canada, but it will not be convenient for the Presidential candidate to be out of the country and he has selected a place in Monroe county, Virginia, among the mountains, for his summer home. The Hot Springs of Virginia have been a resort for fifty years or more and, even before the war, rivaled the Green Briar White Springs as a fashionable resort for the slaveholding aristocracy of the South. Within the last few years it has been a resort of the wealthy and ultra fashionable people of the North and Northeast. While the Presidential candidate and part of his family will be there for the hottest of the summer months, his daughter will visit a school friend in Georgia. There is, of course, no political significance in the selection of a resort south of the Mason and Dixon line, but the fact, insignificant as it is, marks the amelioration of long standing political asperities. There are political wiseacres who predict that the Republican candidate will carry two or three Southern States in the coming election and the fact that he and his family are at home in the South will not be without its significance.

It is reported that President Roosevelt has bought a lot for a residence in the City of New York, at a cost of a million of dollars. Two or three weeks ago only, it was supposed that the President would be without occupation after March the fourth, and it was published that he was comfortably well-off, having an income of at least ten thousand dollars. The question naturally arises: How is the President able to buy a lot for building purposes worth a million dollars? Many Ex-Senators and ex-cabinet officers have been known to buy homes or build homes in Washington, but no Ex-President has ever remained

CASH TURNED LOOSE.
Dividend Money is Now Greasing the Wheels of Commerce.
Columbus, Ga., July 9.—The Georgia and Alabama Industrial Index says in its regular weekly issue:

Dividend money is now greasing the wheels of commerce in Georgia and Alabama, and a right welcome lubricant it is. Numerous banking, industrial and railroad corporations in the two states declared annual, semi-annual or quarterly dividends during the first week in July, and a great sum of money was thus placed in the channels of trade, benefiting countless thousands of people. In the city of Macon, Ga., the money paid out in dividends is estimated to have been $100,000.

In Augusta, Ga., the interest paid saving bank depositors aggregated $60,000, and this was but one item. In other large cities in the two states big sums of money were turned loose by the corporations in the shape of dividends to stockholders, who for the time being found themselves in the same role as employees, in that they were on the pay roll.

JULIAN HARRIS CHOSEN.

Succeeds "Uncle Remus" as Editor of Home Magazine.

Atlanta, July 10.—Julian Harris, son of Joel Chandler Harris, succeeds his father as editor of Uncle Remus—the Home Magazine, retaining also his original position as general manager.

The directors of the Uncle Remus—the Home Magazine, reached these two conclusions, when they met to discuss the death of Joel Chandler Harris and to take measures looking to the future management of the periodical of which he was the founder. In the statement in which their decisions are made public, the directors of the Magazine take occasion to pay a sincere tribute to the peculiar fitness of Julian Harris to assume the duties from which death called his father.
